Calaveritas Literarias

On Monday, October 6th, the call for literary “calaveritas” opens, with a final submission date of Monday, October 20th.

In Mexico, a “calaverita” is a short, humorous poem, often written as a playful epitaph during “Día de Muertos”. These verses depict both the living and the dead in lighthearted situations, humorously poking fun at death and reflecting Mexico's festive approach to it. This is for Primary only and student participation is voluntary.
